To Whom It May Concern:

I am pleased to write this letter on behalf of Mathew Bayley and his staff at "Fighting Chance".

Mathew instructed an in-house "Women's Empowerment and Self Defense" class at Colorado Interstate Gas Company this year. The response to this class was quite positive.

Mathew is a very enthusiastic, high-energy instructor. He demonstrates a unique ability to communicate effectively with his audience and is able to get each student involved and participating in the class activity.

I would strongly recommend Mathew's program to any company or organization considering this type of training.
