To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter in support of Matthew Bailey and the marital arts school he runs. Currently I am working in the Boulder Colorado area as a police officer, yet have maintained my relationship with Mr. Bailey.

Mr. Bailey is one of the most proficient and well rounded martial arts instructors I have met. While studying under Mr. Bailey in Colorado Springs the competition strongly suggested "shopping around" for an alternative school. However, to Mr. Bailey's credit he earned the long time loyalty of some of the finest martial artists in the Colorado Springs area. Since 1991 I have been introduced to many martial arts instructors. I have not found one that possessed the dedication, knowledge, and passion for teaching that Mr. Bailey demonstrates. For this reason above all, he will forever remain "Sensei" Matthew Bailey to me and others who have studied under him for almost two decades.

Sincerely,

Scott Morris
